OPENING AN ACCOUNT

A Junior ISA may only be opened by a person aged 16 or over. Where the child is under 16 the account may only be opened by a person with parental responsibility for the child. A child of 16 or 17 may open a Junior ISA on their own behalf.

To be eligible a child must not have a Child Trust Fund and must either be resident and ordinarily resident in the UK or be a Crown Servant, a dependent of a UK Crown Servant, married to a Crown Servant or in be a civil partnership with a Crown Servant.

Once opened the registered contact for the account will be entitled to give instructions on the account.

The registered contact may be changed by writing to Unicorn Asset Management, Hamilton Centre, Rodney Way, Chelmsford, Essex CM1 3BY.

We reserve the right to refuse your application to open a Junior ISA.

INVESTING IN A JUNIOR ISA

The Account will begin as soon as we accept the application and receive payment. The minimum initial investment in the Junior ISA is £2,500 for lump sums (£100 per month for monthly direct debits). Subsequent lump sum investments must be for a minimum of £1,000 per fund. No interest will be paid on any monies awaiting clearance and/or investment.

A lump sum application monies will normally be invested in the fund of your choice at the price at the dealing day following acceptance of your application. Dealing in the Funds takes place each dealing day.

Any person may make a payment into a Junior ISA on behalf of a child, subject to the annual limits as set out in the ISA regulations. Any such payments are considered to be gifts and become the property of the child. They cannot be repaid.

The Unicorn Investment Funds Junior ISA only allows investment in a Stocks and Shares ISA. The maximum that you can invest in an ISA for any one tax year is £9,000. If you have invested any money into a cash ISA during the year the amount of that investment should be deducted from the limit of £9,000.

If you are making regular savings, direct debit payments will be deducted monthly from your bank account on the 1st business day of the month.

If you are transferring an ISA to us and you do not complete a monetary amount or tax year(s) in your transfer instruction form or if your ISA is a current year ISA, your instruction shall be deemed to be an instruction for the transfer of the whole of your ISA to us. If you are transferring the current tax years ISA this must be transferred in its entirety, but all or part of previous years ISAs may be transferred.

We will manage your Account in accordance with the FCA Rules, the ISA Regulations and these Terms.

We may change these terms and conditions after giving 30 days notice in writing.

CANCELLATION RIGHTS

After we have accepted your application we will send you a cancellation notice. If you wish to cancel your application it must be returned to us within 14 days of its receipt. If the value of investment has fallen since the date of the initial investment, the shortfall will be deducted from the amount returned to you.

HOW INVESTMENTS ARE HELD

You will at all times be and remain the beneficial owner of your Account investments. No certificates will be issued. Title to Account investments shall be vested with the Manager or its appointed nominee. The documents evidencing title to such investments shall be held by the Manager, or its nominee as the Manager may direct. We shall not lend to, nor shall we deposit by way of collateral with, any third party any of the Shares held in your Account, nor shall we borrow money on your behalf against those Shares.

Any money held in a client money account for any reason will not earn interest.

You may not use Account investments as security for a loan.

CHARGES AND EXPENSES

We will not charge you a fee for managing your ISA investment. Charges relating to an investment in the underlying funds are explained in the Supplementary Information Document.

INCOME

Distributions from the Unicorn Investment Funds OEIC will be paid in November only each year with the exception of the Unicorn UK Income Fund & Unicorn UK

Ethical fund which also makes a quarterly distribution in February, May and August.

To enable the income to be paid or reinvested gross on or soon after the distribution date any tax credit reclaimable will be pre-funded by the Manager. The income, including any tax credits reclaimable, will be reinvested in shares of the same fund, unless you have requested that they be paid directly into your bank account, in which case the income will be paid within seven days of receipt.

COMMUNICATIONS

We reserve the right to refuse to accept instructions if they are contrary to these Terms, if compliance would be impracticable or if implementation would place us, or your Account in breach of the ISA Regulations or the FCA Rules. We shall notify you in writing of any refusal.

All instructions, notices or other communications to be given by comply with your instructions. In particular, any transactions by us to you under these Terms will be sent to you at your last address notified to us, and shall be deemed to have been served on the second day following the day on which it was posted.

We will send you twice-yearly statements for the six month periods to 31 January and 31 July. These will include a summary of the number of Shares held in your Account at the relevant valuation date, a valuation of the Shares and a summary of transactions relating to your Account investments. This will include all income re-invested in your Account during the period together with associated tax credits reclaimed.

RIGHTS

You can ask us to arrange for you to:

- (a) receive, the annual and half-yearly reports
- (b) receive any other information issued to Shareholders of the Unicorn investment Funds OEIC;
- (c) attend and vote at meetings of the Unicorn investment Funds OEIC.

TAX

We will make all necessary claims to reclaim tax relating to your Account. Account investments held within an ISA are free of Capital Gains Tax.

You should be aware that value of tax benefits depends on individual circumstances and the favourable tax treatment for ISAs may not withdrawn by the government.

WITHDRAWALS AND CLOSURE

You may, on request, withdraw all or part of your investment from your Account. if so directed, we will realise the specified amount in value of the shares held in your Account at the next dealing point and pay the cash proceeds by cheque either direct to your bank account or to you. The minimum amount that you can withdraw from your Account on any one occasion is £1,000. You should note that after any withdrawal a minimum of £2,500 must be left in your Account.

If you do not comply with the minimum we may treat your instructions as an instruction to terminate your Account. You may close your Account at any time on request. Your Account will close when we receive your instructions. Your Account will be closed if we receive notice of your death. Under the inland Revenues rules, the Account will cease to benefit from the tax advantages relating to ISAs from the date of your death.

We may close your Account in accordance with the ISA Regulations on 30 days written notice. We may also close your Account immediately by giving you notice in writing if the value of your Account investments is less than £1,000 following a partial withdrawal of investments. The Shares remaining in your Account following the withdrawal will be valued on the day of the withdrawal.

We will comply with instructions given by you in connection with any withdrawal from or the transfer or closure of your Account within a reasonable time unless compliance would cause a contravention of the ISA Regulations or any other regulations, law or rule.

On the transfer or closure of your Account any authority which you have given to us, and our obligations under these Terms, will continue for as long as is necessary to allow us to comply with your instructions. In particular, any transactions that are in the course of being effected at the time of any withdrawal from, or on the closure or transfer of, your Account will be completed in the normal manner.

An administration charge of £50 (plus VAT) will be payable on termination/closure of your Account.

DEATH

Should you die your Account will cease to be exempt from tax, and the investments will be transferred to the main share register awaiting instructions from your executors or personal representatives.

SWITCHING

You may instruct us to switch the investments in your Account by selling units in one fund and reinvesting the proceeds in another. We will normally effect the redemption transaction at the valuation point after we receive your instructions and the associated purchase transaction at the following dealing point. The value of the shares being sold should exceed £1,000 subject to a minimum holding of £1,000 per fund.

TRANSFER

You can transfer the whole or part of your Account to another ISA manager by writing to us. If you are transferring the current tax years ISA this must be transferred in its entirety, but all or part of previous tax years ISAs may be transferred. Only cash may be transferred. An administration charge of £50 (plus VAT) will be levied and deducted from the amount transferred.

COMPLAINTS

If you have a complaint about the service you receive from the Unicorn investment Funds ISA you should write initially to us. We will deal with your complaint via our Compliance Officer who may bring your complaint to the attention of its regulators. You may also complain directly to the Financial Ombudsman, South Quay Plaza, 183 Marsh Wall, London, E14 95R (Tel: 0845 080 1800). Unicorn Asset Management can supply you with a statement of your compensation rights in the event of it being unable to meet any liabilities to you arising under your ISA.

LIABILITY

The Manager will not be liable for any loss you may experience through a fall in the value of the investments held in your Account. You hereby agree to indemnify the Manager against any liabilities it may incur in connection with your Account, other than those caused by the Managers negligence or a material breach of the FCA Rules or these Terms by the Manager.

The Manager accepts no responsibility for any loss or delay caused in the transfer or payment to the Manager of any funds to be invested in your Account.

DELEGATION OF FUNCTIONS

We may appoint third parties to carry out any function relevant to the administration of your Account.

CHANGING THE TERMS OF THE ACCOUNT

The Manager may amend the terms and conditions of the Account by notifying you in writing. Any amendments will comply with the relevant regulations and the FCA Rules.

MONEY LAUNDERING

You should be aware that under UK legislation to prevent money laundering we might need to ask you to provide proof of your identity before we can invest your money or send you cash from your ISA. We can not be held liable for any fluctuations in the share price whilst money laundering requirements are being satisfied.

DATA PROTECTION

You agree that the Manager may keep personal data you or others give it and what it knows from running your account on a computerised database.

This information will be used to provide you with the ISA administration service.

In accordance with the Data Protection Act you are entitled, on payment of a fee, to a copy of the information the Manager holds about you. You should let us know if you think any information we hold about you is inaccurate, so we may correct it.

The information held about you is confidential and will only be disclosed to outside persons in the following circumstances:

- where the law permits or requires or it is in the public interest
- to investigate or prevent fraud
- to its agents in connection with running accounts and services for you
- at your request or with your consent
- to the Manager so they may update their own records about you.

COMMUNICATIONS

All communications between yourself and the Manager whether by writing or telephone may be viewed and monitored for regulatory purposes.

NOTICES AND INSTRUCTIONS

Notices and instructions to the Manager must generally be given in writing and signed by you. The Manager is, however, entitled to treat as valid instructions given by you or on your behalf even if not in writing, at its discretion. No liability will be accepted by the Manager if such instructions are given to the Manager as a result of the wrongdoing or negligence of another person unless that person is an employee or agent of the Manager.

YOUR ADDRESS

The address that you give us must be your permanent home and will be the one to which we send any communications. You must tell us straight away if you change your address and we may ask you to confirm it in writing.

VOID ACCOUNTS

Subject to the Regulations, we may, at our discretion, open your Account provisionally where the information, which you have supplied, is insufficient. Where we open an Account provisionally, you must supply us with the missing information within 30 days, otherwise the Account must be voided in accordance with Inland Revenue requirements with the investment held in your name outside an ISA.

Your account will be managed in accordance with the ISA Regulations, which take priority over these Terms.

The Manager will notify you if, by reason of any failure to comply with the ISA Regulations, your Account has ceased, or will cease, to be exempt from tax by virtue of the ISA Regulations. If this happens, your investments may be sold and the proceeds paid to you, or may be transferred out of the Account and into your name. There is a charge of £100 (plus VAT) for a void ISA.

GOVERNING LAW

These Terms shall be governed by the Law of England
