

Unicorn AIM VCT announces intention to launch new £15m offer

Unicorn AIM VCT ('the VCT') has announced its intention to launch a new offer for subscription to raise £15m, through the issue of new ordinary shares. Unicorn has been one of the leading institutional investors in the AIM market since its inception in 2000. The VCT, managed by Chris Hutchinson, is the largest AIM-focused VCT with net assets of over £272 million (as at 30 November 2020).

The Unicorn team brings its considerable experience and success in small cap investing to the VCT. Unicorn currently manages approximately £1.4 billion of assets across a range of funds, of which over £471 million is specifically invested in AIM-listed companies.

Since launch in 2001, Unicorn AIM VCT has delivered strong total capital gains and a consistent income stream to shareholders. It has returned 61 pence per share to shareholders since the merger of the Company with Unicorn AIM VCT II plc on 9 March 2010.

Chris Hutchinson, lead manager of the Unicorn AIM VCT commented: "Unicorn's AIM-focused VCT has a long established track record of delivering attractive and sustainable tax-free dividend income, while also generating meaningful capital gains for shareholders over the longer term. Despite the COVID-19 pandemic and ongoing uncertainty surrounding BREXIT, we remain confident that we will continue to find investment opportunities that, over time, are capable of delivering this important combination of tax-free dividend income and capital growth."
